How my product and its components would be made in a factory by batch production methods:-

How jigs and templates would be used to batch produce some of the parts.

How quality control methods will be used in the production of my embossing tool in the workshop.

How quality control methods would be used in the production of my embossing tool if it were to be batch produced.

Name: Cand No.: